

Cooking demonstration and recipes on India day website

New this year, we are planning to have a cooking demonstration booth on India day September 18, 2010. This is to pass on our eats to next generation and for the exposure to western public.

How does it work?: email your recipe and the recipes best meets the criteria will get to be demonstrated on India day.

What kind of recipe?: Strictly Indian. Kids /adults friendly, heart friendly, Diabetic friendly, Time friendly and simple.

All the recipes mailed will be added on the newly formed Indian recipe section on India day website.
